The „Wahlpflichtfach“ is meant to be a way to widen and intensify your English skills and improve your knowledge about the English speaking world and its culture – which includes almost everything from everyday life to politics.

There will be various approaches to our aim in class. For your participation you should be interested in:

- Group work
- Discussing current topics
- Preparing topics individually
- Reading and understanding newspapers
- Reading short stories and novels
- Learning how to present something in class
- Working with the internet
- Doing research work in the library

The topics that will be discussed depend on your teacher. Your own ideas and suggestions are welcome.

Mind, however, the “Wahlpflichtfach” is no “Förderunterricht” and no video club!

So, if you think this is what you want – COME ALONG AND JOIN US!!!!
